

CHARMS OF IRELAND

About Ireland

The 'terrible beauty' that is Ireland is constantly changing. From towering cliffs to peaceful pastureland, gloomy bogs to lively cities there's always something to discover. Sleep in an ancient castle or snack on crispy fish and chips...just remember, the best way to show your appreciation is to buy the next round.

Killarney

Nestled in a verdant green valley, Killarney National Park is a mixture of ferny trails and mossy fields. There are no cars allowed, so travelers can hike or hire a "Jarvey," which is the Irish way of saying a horse and buggy. Inside the park are two sprawling estates worth exploring. Then it's onto the park's three tranquil lakes where guests can rent a rowboat and explore the islands that dot the waters.

Cork

There's a lot to see and do in this corner of Ireland. Cork is famous for Bunratty Castle and the Cobh Heritage Centre, where visitors explore what life was like in the 18th century. We also suggest a visit to the cathedral, the English Market and Ballymaloe House which is a great place for a cooking class.
